DID YOU KNOW?
Kentucky accounts for about 95 percent of production partially because of its rich limestone resources. An interesting connection is that Libbey also uses lime in our glass production.

DID YOU KNOW?

Though the origin story of bourbon is widely disputed, the term "bourbon" comes from the House of Bourbon, a French dynasty of the 16th through 19th centuries.

WHAT MAKES BOURBON UNIQUE?

To earn the title of "bourbon," a spirit must be made in America, it must be made with at least 51 percent corn, it must be aged in charred white oak barrels, it must be distilled at less than 160 proof, it must enter a barrel at less than 125 proof and it must have no artificial color or flavor.
