BREWING BETTER
BEER EXPERIENCES WITH LIBBEY

DISCOVER UNTAPPED POTENTIAL

The explosion in craft breweries has turned casual drinkers into passionate pint pourers with a taste for IPAs, cream ales and dozens of styles that were largely unavailable a generation ago.

Your guests are drinking better beer. Isn't it time you gave them a better beer glass – one that shows you care about the product and the experience?

With Libbey's wide selection of durable, style-specific beer glassware, you can meet the ever-expanding tastes of your guests while untapping better aromas, better flavor, and a better presentation with every pint.

AND WE'LL RAISE A GLASS TO THAT.

PILSNERS

The conical Pilsner showcases a beer's color, clarity and carbonation. Its shape helps maintain the beer's head, while the narrow design allows aromas to reach your nose.

BEST FOR: PILSNERS AND PALE LAGERS

BELGIAN

The rounded bowl of Libbey's Belgian beer glasses allows for subtle warming of the beer via heat transfer from the hand, while the inward-tapering top captures aromas.

BEST FOR: BELGIAN BEERS OF ALL KINDS

PAGE 4

PUB GLASSES

For an old-school (but brilliant) beer presentation, choose a pub glass, which features a wide mouth to support the frothy head of traditional ales.

BEST FOR: IPAS, PALE ALES, BROWN ALES OR STOUTS

BASICS

These do-it-all pint glasses are a versatile option for your bar or restaurant, with features like space-saving stackability and a whimsical can shape.

BEST FOR: MACRO BREWS AND MORE

STEMWARE

From specialty fruit beers to fine craft brews, tulip-shaped stemmed glassware elevates your beer – and commands a higher price point.

BEST FOR: LAMBICS, SAISONS, UPSCALE ALES AND LAGERS

PAGE 4

STEINS AND MUGS

Prost! Large, durable and perfect for a celebratory "cheers," mugs and steins are ideal for the proper serving of traditional German-style beers.

BEST FOR: OKTOBERFEST BEERS AND OTHER DARK LAGERS

TRENDS ON TAP: Low ABV

The global trend toward health and wellness has made its mark in craft beer, where many brewers are now offering low- and no-alcohol alternatives for beer lovers who want to drink more mindfully – especially Millennials and Gen Z.

By 2032, the global non-alcoholic beers market is expected to surpass $43.6 billion, according to Future Market Insights. As the “sober-curious” movement continues to grow, it will be increasingly important to offer a variety of health-conscious options, from light, low-calorie lagers to fully non-alcoholic beers.

TRENDS ON TAP: Sours

Sour beers – which get their unique tang from the addition of lactobacillus – have finally gone mainstream, thanks to light, fruity flavors that have attracted wine and cocktail drinkers to the craft beer scene. The refreshing zing also aligns with the low-cal, low-ABV trend making its way through the craft beer movement.

TRENDS ON TAP: Lagers

What's next for traditional beer styles? As drinkers continue to expand their palates, one category that is gaining momentum is the humble lager. Beer drinkers love their light, malty flavors, and brewers love their longer shelf life and low-cost ingredients.

Golden lagers – still the top seller worldwide – are also a great “gateway style” for former macro brew drinkers. Look for more German and Eastern European helles and pilsners on craft beer menus in the near future.
