

LIBBEY

Elevated Basics

Trend Report Fall 2025

Shown: Status dinnerware, Prism stemware, Audrey flatware

Elegance, plain and simple

Call it classic. Call it minimalist. Just don't call it boring.

Bars and restaurants are going back to basics for today's tabletop inspiration. It's all about preserving the clean, timeless look your guests trust, elevated with beautiful details that add personality and style to the table.

Be inspired by the selections shown here, then connect with Libbey to bring the trend to life in your space with a free sample.

A canvas for your creations

Crisp whiteware and classic glassware offer the ultimate in creative flexibility, perfect for venues where the menu changes regularly.

Shown: Galileo dinnerware

Shown: Renaissance Coupe

Galileo

Showcase your skills

Timeless tableware lets food and drink speak for itself

Catalina 3828

Less is more

Always so chic, the minimalist look is here to stay

Baguette

For every venue

Differentiate yourself wherever formality is preferred

Shown: Zipline dinnerware

Timeless design

A dated tabletop? Never. With classic pieces like these, you can be confident that your investment will look good today, tomorrow and next year.

Parisian

Photo-worthy presentations

Clean lines lend themselves to social media sharing

Mix and match

Coordinating pieces complete your vision

Gibraltar

Functional simplicity

Durability and stackability improve service life

Structure Stackable Cooler

Serve experience

Harness the power of pattern and texture to set the mood for guests. These pieces encourage guests to slow down and savor every moment.

Symmetry Rocks Glass

Streamlined shapes

Add a calming presence to the meal

Farmhouse

Beyond whiteware

Soft creams and a patterned rim add a modern touch

Santorini Satin

Engage the senses

Tactile textures put a twist on the traditional

Try the trend

Scan here to learn more about the products shown, then order free samples so you can bring these elevated basics to your space.

©2025 Libbey Glass LLC

L-7223

Libbey Pro

